The Yale grange will entertain the Jolly Farmers' Club at Brockway Town hall on March 28. Good speakers will be in attendance. Following is the menu to be served: Scalloped potatoes, baked beans, sandwiches, salad, pickles and pie.

V. K. Rassey has leased a business block, corner Huron Ave., and Grand River street, Port Huron, and will open a wholesale and retail fruit and confectionery store soon. The store here will be continued but headquarters will be at Port Huron where the family will move.

The merchants of Yale, who put on the pony contest some time ago, received the pony Saturday night last and have had the little fellow on exhibition on our streets each day since. It is a neat looking animal and will put joy and gladness into the heart of the boy or girl who is lucky enough to win.

Mrs. W. A. Williams plans to leave next Monday for St. Paul, Minn., on a ten days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Dudley, of Black Duck, Minn., who is seriously ill at a St. Paul hospital. Mrs. Walter Knapp, of Yale, is expected to arrive this week to take charge of the Williams home during her sister's absence.—Sandusky Tribune.

Why wouldn't it be a good plan for the business men and citizens of Yale and other towns along this line of the Pere Marquette to start something that will result in the company putting the trains on again that were discontinued last fall, owing to the shortage of fuel. The old schedule went into effect on the Port Austin division last Monday and should be resumed here.

Verna Hallman visited in Melvin over Sunday.

Eli Sheffield is in Port Huron this week on a visit.

We have been having ideal spring weather the past week. Beautiful sunshine and balmy air. The roads are drying up fast and in some places the dust is flying. Lawns in the city and pasture fields in the country are showing a tinge of green. No desire to be in California or Florida this weather.

The next annual meeting of the Christian church will be held at the home of Mrs. Edna Little, Friday evening, March 22. A fine program of music and games will be the pastime of the evening. Refreshments and coffee will be served at the close of the program. All are invited to attend.

Geo. W. Bell, auctioneer, informs the Expositor that large crowds of anxious buyers are attending the sales this spring, and every sale has been successful and satisfactory. More auction sales are in sight. Mr. Bell is a man of long years experience as an auctioneer and understands how to get his audience in the best of buying humor.

The sale at Mrs. Wesley Graybiel's on Tuesday was the best in many a year.

Dame Fashion Makes Her Initial Bow in Revealing Her First Authentic Presentation—

Newest Fashions for Spring

Like the first flower of Spring—Dam Fashion too, brushes aside the curtain of Winter, and ah! what a wondrous sight we behold—a truly marvelous exposition of newest Fashions for the coming season, a sight that will soothe the feminine hunger for beauty, attractiveness and authentic style news. Every newly approved Fashion developed by clever designers of reputable note from the latest fabrics is represented in this exposition of Spring Fashions. Women who desire authentic information of the correct Fashions are invited to visit this Store and view the present showing.

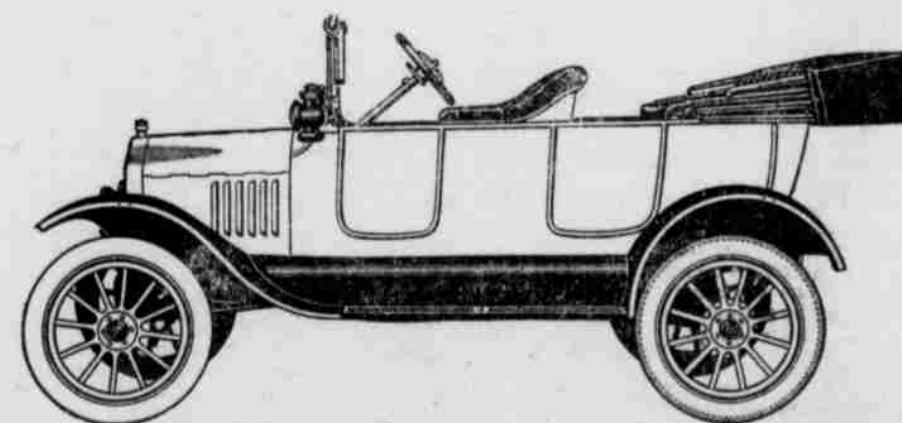

THE COATS Spring coats fashioned of materials that supply just the right amount of warmth for sparkling Spring days. New colors and fabrics are evident everywhere—and new ideas in collars, belts and trimmings. Among the favored there are Khaki, Castor, Pekin blue, tan and new green and blue shades. Price range from $22.50 to $60.00.

THE SUITS How strikingly smart are the new Spring suits with their Eton and Zouave jackets and their marvelously pretty Poney coats. The conservation of material has added to, rather than detracted from their appearance, and this is especially noticeable in the stunning tailored suits. Handsome belted suits are also being shown for slight figures. Vests and button trimming are used considerably.

The Ford is an honest car in the fullest sense of the term—built on an honest design with honest materials, sold at an honest price with the assurance of honest performance and an equally honest, efficient after-service. Besides, it has been proved beyond question that the Ford is most economical, both to operate and maintain. It is one of the utilities of daily life. Your order solicited. Efficient after-service is behind every Ford car. Runabout $460; Touring Car $475, f. o. b. Yale, war tax paid.
